

Sure Thing

Directed by Hailey Beck & Chris Simmons

A man and a woman meet for the first time in a cafe, where they have an awkward meeting, reset each time they say the wrong thing.

Bill.....Alex Posar
Betty.....Amy Rose Dudycz

Words, Words, Words

Directed by Anthony Strong

The “infinite monkey theorem”-- the idea that given enough time, three monkeys in a room could eventually compose any given text, including Shakespeare’s Hamlet -- is turned into reality.

Milton.....Will Makley
Swift.....Jeremy Pugh
Kafka.....Leah Jackson

The Universal Language

Directed by Meghan Falkowski & Dane CT Leasure

A man welcomes a naïve woman into his fraudulent language-learning course, in which he only speaks the language of Unamunda.

Don.....Nathan Shaffer
Dawn.....Julia Dulaney

Phillip Glass Buys a Loaf of Bread

Directed by Hannah Ford

This existential mini-musical parody imitates composer Philip Glass's minimalist style; that is to say that comparatively few words and ideas are repeated many times.

Baker.....Sean Garvey
Phillip.....Anthony Strong
Woman 1.....Miah Montesano
Woman 2.....Stella Naymik

The Philadelphia

Directed by Kaeli Stephens

A man discovers that he’s entered a strange pocket of the universe where the only way to get what he wants is to ask for the opposite.

Mark.....Ryan Dulaney
Al.....Dominic Shamblin
Waitress.....Hadassah Rayle

Variations on the Death of Trotsky

Directed by Nicky Dietzen & Michael Kerosky

Famous Marxist Leon Trotsky dies over and over again from a mountain climber's axe wound received many hours prior.

Trotsky.....Ryan Walsh
Mrs. Trotsky.....Jamie Brasdovich
Ramón.....Jeremy Pugh

All in the Timing is presented by special arrangement with Dramatists Play Service, Inc., New York.

Hannah Ford (Director) is very excited to be a part of her seventh show at NHS. Along with directing, Hannah is President of the Drama Club, Secretary of National Honor Society, a dancer at EDC, and a Catholic in training. In the very scary near future, she would like to pursue theatre as a possible major or a definite minor with a major in Education. Hannah would like to apologize in advance if you are confused by her scene.

Sean Garvey (Baker) is a sophomore and this is his first production. While preparing for this role, he trained a koala to learn his lines in case of emergency injury. His name is Steve.

Leah Jackson (Kafka). "According to all known laws of aviation, there is no way that a bee should be able to fly. Its wings are too small to lift its fat little body off the ground. The bee, of course, flies anyway - because bees don't care what humans think is impossible." - The Bee Movie. Leah enjoys The Bee Movie.

Michael Kerosky (Director) is one of the student directors for the show, specifically helping to direct the concluding scene, Variations on the Death of Trotsky. He's been in the Drama Club for four years now and is the current Treasurer. Hobbies include philosophy, coffee, and featural writing systems.

Will Makley (Milton) is a senior. He has been involved in the past three spring musicals as a member of the pit orchestra. He loves camping and hiking. His favorite season is winter, although he hates being cold.

Miah Montesano (Woman 1) is a junior. Her pastimes include mimicking a slowly ticking clock and pondering the wonders of bread. In the future, she wants to attend a bakery where she won't get sucked into a bread-based time warp.

Stella Naymik (Woman 2) is a 9th grader at Nordonia High School where she is excited to be involved in All in the Timing! Stella has performed in many children's theatre productions as well as The Crucible at Rubber City Theatre last summer, her first professional show. She loves pasta and hates when people crack their knuckles.

Alex Posar (Bill) is a senior. This is his seventh production with the Drama Club. While preparing for this role, he trained a koala to learn his lines in case of emergency injury. His name is Stephan.

Jeremy Pugh (Swift) is a senior. This is his fourth production with the Drama Club. While preparing for this role, he trained a koala to learn his lines in case of emergency injury. His name is Carl.

Hadassah Rayle (Waitress) has been acting since she was six and has been in a few productions since then. She loves her friends and family who support her in following her dreams. When she is not acting, she is usually reading or singing. This is her first high school production and cannot wait to see what's in store in the future.

Nathan Shaffer (Don) is a junior this year and All in the Timing is his first acting experience. Nathan is also involved in Nordonia's Choir and has played the trombone since the sixth grade. Outside of school, Nathan does Crossfit with his parents and spends most of his time sleeping.

Dominic Shamblin (Al) is a senior!! at Nordonia and this is his fourth Drama production. He is planning to attend Cleveland State University in the fall to major in Business Management with a minor in Theatre. He is morbidly distraught of the closing of Papa Johns.

Kaeli Stephens (Director) is a senior (!) at Nordonia High School. She is involved in Drama Club, National Honor Society, Girl Scouts, choir, and acapella. This is her sixth show at Nordonia, and her first time directing. When she isn't doing AP Stats, you can find her snuggled up in her heated blanket watching Big Time Rush.

Anthony Strong (Director/Phillip Glass)

Ryan Walsh (Trotsky) is a junior at NHS and this is his first Drama production. While preparing for this role, he trained a koala to learn his lines in case of emergency injury. His name is Malahk.

CAST AND DIRECTOR BIOS

Hailey Beck (Director) is a junior at Nordonia High School. This will be Hailey's third show with Nordonia Drama. She loves theatre and doing anything she can to have the show go on!

Jamie Brasdovich (Mrs. Trotsky) is super excited to be in her seventh show!! She spends her time singing in Symphonic Chorale, Synergy, and Cati's Car. If she's not drinking coffee, singing, or gasping - something is wrong.

Nicky Dietzen (Director) is a senior now involved in her sixth show at Nordonia. She spends her time outside the theatre serving frozen custard to aggravating children and their equally aggravating parents. Never heard of a gay lawyer? Now you have. She would like to thank her ex-husband Jeremy Pugh for all his help with the kids after the divorce, especially Jamie, the only child she loves. (She also is really going to miss doing fall plays with some of her best friends <3).

Amy Rose Dudycz (Betty) is a senior making her debut in Nordonia's fall plays. She was in the pit orchestra for Cinderella and Les Misérables, and appeared on stage in last year's Oklahoma! Outside of Drama, Amy Rose is losing sleep over Band, Mock Trial, National Honor Society, three AP classes, and saying "Hi, Welcome to Chili's!"

Julia Dulaney (Dawn) is a sophomore at Nordonia High School who is making her fall play debut. Julia spends her time falling love with lame con-men, fake s-s-stuttering, and learning languages that make no sense what-so-ever. She really enjoys losing sleep and procrastinating homework because of band, acapella, Mock Trial and Drama.

Ryan Dulaney (Mark) is a senior in high school. Being the musically adept "know-it-all" that he is, Ryan waited until his junior year to join the Drama program. He is not as cool as his sister or his girlfriend (despite his claims).

Meghan Falkowski (Director) is a junior at Nordonia who has never participated in the fall play; but, for some reason, Chris has trusted her to be a director. She enjoys binge watching Gordon Ramsay's Kitchen Nightmares, wasting her precious time doing 2000 piece puzzles, and crying.
