

FROM THE DIRECTOR

“Oh! The Thinks you will think, if you’re willing to try.” The first line of the first song of this wacky musical tells us all what we need to know about the world of Dr. Seuss without actually telling us anything. And that is, in fact, everything.

As a child, I loved Dr. Seuss. (I Wish That I Had Duck Feet was a favorite of my brother and me.) The made up words, the fun drawings and colors. It sparked our imagination. You could go from McElligot’s Pool to Solla Sollew in one afternoon. You could visit a Fox in Socks and then see who likes Green Eggs and Ham. Dr. Seuss is easily responsible for jumpstarting the imaginations of children all over the world for the last 75 years, and for instilling in us all that anything really is possible.

Getting to jump back into his world as an adult has been such a fun and unique experience, and has really proven to be just the right challenge for me to attack for my 20th musical here at Nordonia. 20 years. From my freshmen year of high school in 2001 until now, I have seen so many shows come and go. I have worked with so many dedicated and talented students. And I have been so unbelievably lucky to have been surrounded by so many brilliant and passionate people that I have gotten to work with side by side for four months each year.

Megan, Bill, Chip, Kitty, Molly, Vicki, Jacklyn, Cati, Gary, Dylan, Carlton, Kevin, Ryan, Shannon, Logan, Kelly, Sharon, Kathleen, John, Dave, Beth, Sean, Leah, Kim, Amy, Alex, Brittney, Jonathon, Dane, and the countless countless parents. Mentors, collaborators, and friends, you all inspire me every day, and it has been an honor to have my name associated amongst yours for so many years...and hopefully a few more to come.

To my cast and crews. Thank you for all of your hard work as you have brought these cartoon characters to life on stage! I hope your time in Whoville and the Jungle of Nool has been filled with fun and laughter you will look back on for years to come. To the Class of 2020, thank you for the memories. You are welcome back any time.

I will leave you with a Dr. Seuss quote that I think perfectly sums up what this process has been for us, and an insight into what you can expect as well. “If things start happening, don’t worry, don’t stew, just go right along and you’ll start happening too.” Thank you all for a wonderful 20 years with Nordonia Drama. Enjoy the show!

Chris Simmons
Director of Drama
